WE NEED A RAMADAN

The month of Ramadan in which was revealed the Qur'ân, a guidance for mankind and clear proofs for the guidance and the criterion (between right and wrong). So whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadan i.e. is present at his home), he must observe Saum (fasts) that month, and whoever is ill or on a journey, the same number [of days which one did not observe Saum (fasts) must be made up] from other days....

— 2:185 Muhammad Taqi-ud-Din al-Hilali & Muhammad Muhsin Khan

Introduction:

In light of current events, especially the challenges faced by our brothers and sisters in Palestine, the arrival of Ramadan feels even more significant. With less than 65 days to this holy month, a sense of urgency and anticipation is palpable. Ramadan isn't just a month; it's a spiritual reset, a time to rejuvenate our faith and homes in alignment with the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah.

Why We Need Ramadan:

Ramadan is more than fasting from dawn to dusk; it is a period of spiritual cleansing and renewal. This month offers us a chance to strengthen our relationship with Allah, to be more compassionate, and to reflect on our blessings. It's a time for community, for sharing our joys and burdens, and for remembering those in hardship, like our Palestinian brethren. It's a time to detach from worldly distractions and focus on what truly matters - our faith and how we practice it.

Preparing Your Home for Ramadan:

- Renew Your Intentions: Begin by renewing your intentions. Make sincere dua to Allah, asking for the opportunity to witness and make the most of Ramadan. This spiritual preparation sets the tone for the month.
- Revise the Quran: If life's busyness has kept you from the Mushaf, now is the time to reconnect. Start revising the Quran, rekindle the relationship with its teachings, and let its guidance illuminate your home and heart.
- Revive Your Home: A clean, organized home can uplift your spirit. Declutter and cleanse your living space. Remember, cleanliness is part of faith. A tidy home is conducive to worship and reflection, making it easier to focus on your prayers and Quran study.
- Plan for Family Revival: Clear your schedule as much as possible to spend quality time with family. Discuss the significance of Ramadan, plan your worship schedule together, and engage in activities that strengthen your bond and faith, like sharing Iftar meals and performing Taraweeh prayers.
- Supplication: End your preparations with the supplication: "Allaahumma balighna Ramadan" (Oh Allah, allow us to reach Ramadan). This is a humble plea to be granted the opportunity to experience the blessed month.

WE NEED A RAMADAN

Allāh intends for you ease, and He does not want to make things difficult for you. (He wants that you) must complete the same number (of days), and that you must magnify Allāh [i.e. to say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar; Allāh is the Most Great] for having guided you so that you may be grateful to Him...

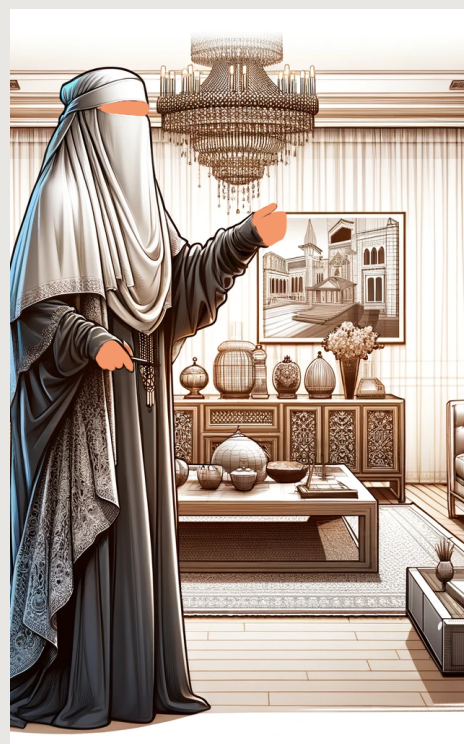

— 2:185 Muhammad Taqi-ud-Din al-Hilali & Muhammad Muhsin Khan

Conclusion:

As we count down the days to Ramadan, let's embrace this opportunity for spiritual growth and renewal. This Ramadan, let it be a time of compassion, reflection, and rejuvenation for both our faith and our homes. May Allah allow us to reach this blessed month and make the most of it.

In the ever-evolving world of home decor, staying abreast of the latest trends is key, especially if you're moving into a fully furnished space or planning a refresh. While there's no one-size-fits-all approach to styling your home, certain trends have a universal appeal and are set to make a significant impact in 2024. Whether you're looking to infuse new life into your living space or just curious about what's trending, these top 5 home decor trends offer a glimpse into the future of stylish living.

01 Timeless Style:

Embrace the beauty of a timeless aesthetic in your home. This trend leans towards traditional details and materials that offer a sense of "quiet luxury." Think of incorporating elements like rustic wood, handmade clay tiles, and elegant arches. This style isn't just about looking back; it's about choosing designs that endure, perfect for those who wish their home to have a lasting appeal

02 Handmade Features

Customization is key in 2024. Handmade tiles, custom vanities, and unique, bespoke elements are all the rage. This trend is about having something special that is uniquely yours, with an emphasis on handcrafted materials like plasterwork and caning, as well as hand-painted or watercolor wallcoverings, and also time to support our local artisans from different countries around the world!

03 Wood Accents

The classic charm of wood is back in a big way. We're seeing a resurgence of natural and stained wood cabinets, flooring, and detailing. From walnut to oak, wood accents, especially in kitchens, break the monotony and bring a warm, natural feel to your space

04 Blended Backsplashes:

Get creative with backsplashes. This trend mixes tiled areas with stunning slabs of stone or quartz. It's a functional yet stylish choice that creates an eye-catching focal point.

05 Upper Cabinets:

Function meets form with the return of upper cabinets. This trend is for those who crave storage without sacrificing style. Light colors and glass-front options can help maintain a spacious and open feel while providing essential storage.

06 Personalized Spaces: Do You!

Finally, a trend that's close to our heart – personalized spaces. This is where you break free from the trends and create a home that reflects your personality. It's about decorating with items that have personal significance, whether it's a piece of art you love, a collection of books, or family heirlooms. Your home should be a reflection of you, a place of serenity and tranquility that resonates with your unique taste. Sometimes, the most stylish choice is to simply be yourself!
